

The SCC can provide short term accommodation for Service Personnel, entitled family members and MOD Civil Servants for a variety of reasons. We can:

Accommodate and support injured personnel, their carers and / or immediate family members during a period of recuperation during rehabilitation

Provide accommodation between assignments – both before taking up a post or repatriation back to the UK

Provide a venue (with or without accommodation) for training conference and / or courses

Provide accommodation for personnel and / or their family returning to the UK for medical or compassionate reasons

Provide accommodation for married and single discharging personnel whilst they await final payments

Provide accommodation for R&R (for eligible personnel taking inter-assignment leave or seeking accommodation for a short break)

Provide emergency accommodation for families, spouses and civil partners who have been evacuated from overseas assignments

Provide Contact Housing for separated / divorced family short parental visits

Provide accommodation for spouses who have experienced a marital breakdown or those fleeing domestic abuse. Under these circumstances we can also advise on benefits and onward housing

Provide Duty Transit Accommodation
