

Emergency Instructions Guidance

In a major emergency involving RAF Akrotiri, if you are not involved in the incident, but are close by or believe you may be in danger, follow Government advice and:

GO IN

STAY IN

TUNE IN

GO IN to a safe building.

STAY IN until you are advised to do otherwise.

TUNE IN to local TV or radio for more information.

- Go immediately into a house or building.
- Close all external doors, turn off ventilation systems.
- Close all windows and curtains.
- Close all internal doors and go to a room facing away from RAF Akrotiri.

STAY Remain indoors until you receive instructions from the police.

TUNE your radio to the local radio station (BFBS 89.9 - 107.3 MHz FM)

Resist the urge to use your mobile or landline telephones, unless it is an emergency, as doing so may cause congestion of the telephone networks.

Do Not use the telephone to contact RAF Akrotiri to ensure the lines are free for the emergency services to use.

This leaflet is produced in accordance with the MOD Major Accident Control Regulations to advise you what to do in the unlikely event of a major accident occurring within RAF Akrotiri that could affect you.

Please read this carefully and follow the instructions given if the warning is implemented.

Householders are advised to ensure that all occupants understand the instructions. Responsible persons in business or community premises should also be familiar with the actions required to enable them to instruct occupants in the event of a major accident.

This leaflet should be kept in an accessible place and passed on to subsequent occupiers. It should be prominently displayed in business or community premises. Additional copies may be obtained from the RAF Akrotiri SHE Officer - 25275274.
