Baggage Allowance

Baggage allowance is as shown on your booking confirmation.

Your baggage allowance is shown on your booking confirmation. Any baggage presented at Check-In, which is above your entitlement will result in you being charged excess baggage at the current rate. Should you need excess baggage as per the JSP 800, you must request this through DPRC or your booking centre in advance and not on the day of your flight.

Hold Baggage

Maximum weight per individual hold bag must not exceed 32kgs.

You will be required to surrender your hold baggage to the Air Movements staff when you check-in for your flight. For Health and Safety (H&S) reasons, the maximum weight per individual hold bag must not exceed 32kgs.

Hand baggage allowance is 9kgs (19lbs) - with dimensions of 60 x 53 x 25cms (24 x 21 x 10ins).

The hand baggage allowance is now 9kgs (19lbs) and is limited to only 1 piece per passenger, with maximum dimensions of 60 x 53 x 25cms (24 x 21 x 10ins). All personnel with a service issue laptop computer are to have a signed certificate from their unit security officer iaw JSP 440. Hand baggage must fit in the frame provided at check-in.

Passengers travelling on charter flights (Ascension/Akrotiri/Falklands) cabin baggage is not to exceed one bag weighing 9kg. Laptop computers are to be incorporated within the cabin (hand) baggage entitlement.

For the purpose of travel on RAF aircraft, baggage is defined as suitcases and bags holding a passenger’s personal belongings. Accompanied baggage does not include such items as tools and tool boxes, (unless authorised by DSCOM), vehicle spares, engineering equipment, bikes or large electrical items e.g televisions. If presented, these items will be rejected at check-in. No items may be carried in your baggage that are deemed as Dangerous Goods iaw International Aviation Regulations, if you have any queries about an item please contact RAF Brize Norton Passenger Information - 01993 895861.

Combined Itineraries

If you have a combined itinerary that includes both RAF Trooping and Civil Charter flight, you should check that your baggage does not exceed the allowance limited by your civil flight. You should therefore make certain that the number of pieces, size and weight of your baggage complies with the airlines limitations, whilst ensuring that no one item exceeds the maximum H&S restriction above.
Baggage Insurance

The MoD is not liable for the cost of insuring baggage and personal effects. Passengers are strongly advised to obtain their own insurance to cover loss or damage to baggage. Claims in respect of uninsured losses will be considered on an individual basis and limited compensation may be offered, strictly on an ex gratia basis.

Such claims should be forwarded on MoD Form 441 or JPA Form 014 (available from the Movements Staff) along with a copy of the ‘Loss / Damage Baggage Form’ to:

Baggage Claims Officer
Business and Finance Office
RAF Brize Norton
Carterton
Oxon
OX18 3LX