

RAF UNIVERSITY SPONSORSHIP SCHEMES

Two University Sponsorship schemes:

Defence Technical Undergraduate Scheme (DTUS)

University Air Squadron Bursary Scheme (UAS BS)

The closing date for applications to both DTUS and UAS BS is first week of December each year.

Defence Technical Undergraduate Scheme (DTUS)

- For Engineering and Logistics Officers only.
- The DTUS Bursary Scheme is £4000 a year for years one to three. Extra year payable for a Masters degree if requested and approved.
- DTUS Universities are; Strathclyde, Oxbridge, Newcastle, Northumbria, Loughborough, Birmingham, Aston Portsmouth and Southampton.
- Applications for DTUS accepted from students, at university or currently in their Upper Sixth year at school/Year 13 or Scottish equivalent.

University Air Squadron Bursary Scheme (UAS BS)

- For Pilots, RPAS Pilot, Engineers, Drs, ABM, ATC, Intelligence, Personnel Support, RAF Regiment and Logistics Officers.
- Applications for UASBS are only accepted from candidates already at any UK University.
- The UAS Bursary is a maximum of £6,000 payable in years two and three for a 3 year degree or, in years two, three and four for a 4 year degree.
- Medical Cadetship available for final 2 years at Medical School.
- Candidates applying for Foundation Degrees at Universities will not be considered for sponsorship.